TEXAS HOLD'EM BONUS POKER Summary Sheet

TEXAS HOLD'EM BONUS POKER, is a community card poker game played with one standard 52-card deck. The object of the game (for player and dealer alike), is to make the best "five-card" poker hand, using any combination of their two-card hand (Hole Cards), along with; 3, 4 or all 5 of the five community cards (called, Board Cards). BEST 5-CARD HAND WINS

Texas Hold'em Bonus Poker....vs.....card room Texas Hold'em

Each Player is competing "heads-up" with the Dealer (no Player to Player competition)	7 to 10 Players competing against each other with the house taking a 5% "rake" on the "pot"
5.59% House Advantage on the base game 8.91 % House Advantage on the side bet wager	5% House Rake on the dollar amount of the "pot" with an imposed limit (in most cases)
Played on a Blackjack-type table with a customer friendly Dealer; much less intimidating to Players	Player to Player competition for a "pot", won by one person, makes for aggressive intimidation.

WINNING HANDS of a FLUSH or better are paid (addition) EVEN MONEY on the ANTE wager

Bonus Wager Side Bet

Two (2) paytables designed to reward Player's for premium 2-card hand (Hole Card) hands.

TEXAS HOLD'EM BONUS POKER is designed, to follow along the lines of traditional Texas Hold'em (as played in Poker Rooms) but must incorporate certain differences to allow for the "house-banking", "heads-up" play. All wagers (Ante, Bonus, Flop, Turn & River) are made by the Players before receiving or viewing cards, each step of the way. A "Bonus" side bet wager is added, where Players compare their starting hand (hole cards) to a posted payable. A Player can lose the base game hand to the Dealer and still be paid on the side bet (based on the "hole-cards")

TEXAS

BONUS™

ANY TWO CARDS CAN WIN!

That is the beauty of the game of TEXAS HOLD 'EM and why it's so popular today; and the same holds true for TEXAS HOLD 'EM BONUS™ POKER.

The best "hole cards" (2-card starting hand) sometimes will not win...and the worst starting hand (hole-cards) becomes the winning poker hand, after all the community cards are exposed.

How To Play: Two cards are dealt to each Player; Two cards to the Dealer; and Five Community Cards are dealt face-up in the center for both Players and Dealers to use in any combination (3, 4 or all of the 5 Community Cards may be used) to make the highest ranked poker hand.

★ "Check or Bet" Option: Players can bet or not bet on the 4th and/or 5th community card and still be in for the final show-down.

PRODUCT FEATURES

- Custom felt layout designed to fit a standard Blackjack table, offered in both 6 and 7 spot layouts.
- Two different paytables to choose from
- Casino management sets their own betting ranges and aggregate per round limits
- Custom Edge-lit Table Sign and free-standing Deluxe Paytable Display included

TEXAS HOLD 'EM BONUS™ POKER plays "heads-up" against the Dealer. All wagers (Ante, Bonus, Flop, Turn and River) are made by the Players before receiving or viewing cards, each step of the way. A BONUS JACKPOT Wager (side bet) is added, where Players compare their starting hand (hole cards) to a posted paytable.

TEXAS HOLD 'EM BONUS™ POKER may be located in both the "Pit" and/or in the Poker Room while Players are waiting for a seat on a "live" Hold 'Em, Omaha or Stud table.
